FRIULANO 2017

DOC Friuli

Produced from grapes of Tocai Friulano, dry and moderately alcoholic, this indigenous wine has nothing to do with its alcoholic and sweet Hungarian cousin. Rather, it has more affinity with some white wines from Alsace, France.

Friulano has distinctive characteristics and is an absolutely unique wine from our region.

Perfumes are fine and elegant, with a scent of almonds and flowers that anticipates a slightly bitter and pleasant back taste over a well structured body. Vintage 2017 has very typical and distinctive character.

It is an important white wine for every occasion: excellent as an aperitif, ideal as a complement to fish dishes, suitable also to accompany cheeses and light meats. To be served cool.
